

“Student Ambassador National Programme” for School Senior Prefects National Child Protection Authority.

The “Student Ambassador National Programme” is a programme organized by National Child Protection Authority which is specially created with the purpose of developing knowledge, skills & attitudes of senior school prefects on child protection. Here, the school prefects from grade 9 and above are considered as senior prefects. It is expected to implement a sustainable programme aimed at school prefects in order to create a child friendly & protective environment within the school.

Child friendly school is a school which actively fulfills each & every right of every child mentioned on the Universal Convention on the Rights of the Children (UNCRC). It is expected to get the active involvement of school prefects through “Student Ambassador National Programme” to establish child friendly school concept in schools.

It is a prime concern to build a leader of a child protection who prioritize child protection, stand against child abuse, take actions to protect children in every possible occasion as future adults or professionals occupy in diverse sectors with the exposure they gain during young age as a Student Ambassador.

Objectives of this programme :

1. Create awareness on the National Policy on Child Protection.
2. Get the contribution of school prefects to minimize & to prevent child abuse in the school.
3. Ensure the participation of school prefects for decision making process.
4. Intervene to develop knowledge, skills & attitudes including leadership of prefects to create a child friendly & protective environment.
5. Contribute to build a responsible & accountable prefect community in child protection.

The role of school prefects is crucial when implementing child protection practically. “Student Ambassador National Programme” will prepare school prefects to take the leadership to stabilize child protection in schools with the support of prefect board. National Child Protection Authority wishes to make present Sri Lankan children sensitive on child protection & make them responsible citizens with leadership through this programme.

The schools those who wish to participate for this Student Ambassador National Programme need to get the registration at National Child Protection Authority annually. The registration form can be downloaded from National Child Protection Authority website or else can be collected from District Child Protection Officer (DCPO) & District Psychosocial Officers (DPSO) who are employed at District Secretariat and Divisional Officers (DivCPO) who are employed at Divisional Secretariat.
